Dear Parents/Carers

Photographs

It has come to my attention that some parents/carers may have taken photographs of their children at school this morning. I appreciate that starting school is a special occasion and we want to document these moments to treasure forever. However, there are some children who do not have permission for their photograph to be taken or to be used on social media. If you did take some photographs this morning, that show other children in the background, could I politely ask that you do not share these on social media and delete any photos that show other children in the background.

Where possible, I will always try to inform you at school events if we have permission for photographs to be taken of all the children who are participating, so that you can document special moments in your child's school life.

Thank you for your understanding

Mrs Disney
