LO: to write a narrative

SC I can write a narrative using my plan.

⑦

Once upon a time, there was ~~no~~ a great a great, big superhero called Jake. He didn't actually like the rain because you would get soaking wet. A few days later, Jake decided to ban the weather with a witch who was unwell! But everyone was laughing because the sky was obviously colourless!

Everyone liked the ban for quite weeks, until they just realised that showers need water!

They could not go to relax in the sun!

Nobody could ride their sledge in the white, beautiful snow.

Everyone wanted the weather back!

Meanwhile Jake is fighting lots and lots of crime!
