

On the beautiful day, there was a smart fox named Felix. He passed by the custom notice board. He noticed people losing things he had to do something, people losing clocks so people are late for work. Felix was the only animal to find those missing items for those poor people. Felix went in Seth's gigantic mansion and he was like the tooth fairy because he saw it first thing it was behind his cushion. The next person to find there house was Soren's large house. Felix finds serens jumper behind serens tight's.

The next day, Felix looks at the sparkly notice board there was a golden invitation for me. It says dear mystery sweater hero, we invited you to a thankyou party for helping everybody in caston come to tesco's to have a party.
I home smarting my hair I came to gigantic tesco's just before I said hello everybody should orange FOX!
I was so sad.

Felix went back home and he was extremely depressed he didn't know what to do so he left again. he went back to his silver cave.

In the morning Felix saw a present. Inside there was a letter for me it says dear Felix come down stairs to have a cup of tea and Seth and Felix lived happily ever after.
