

The Matterhorn

The matterhorn is used for tourists and sport. Its almost a snow pyramid shape. It's the tallest mountain in Europe. The matterhorn is 4478m high

The matterhorn is in Switzerland and the border of Italy.

The matterhorn is made of gneisses and sedimentary rocks from the Pennine nappes.

To get to Matterhorn 14hr 11min in a car

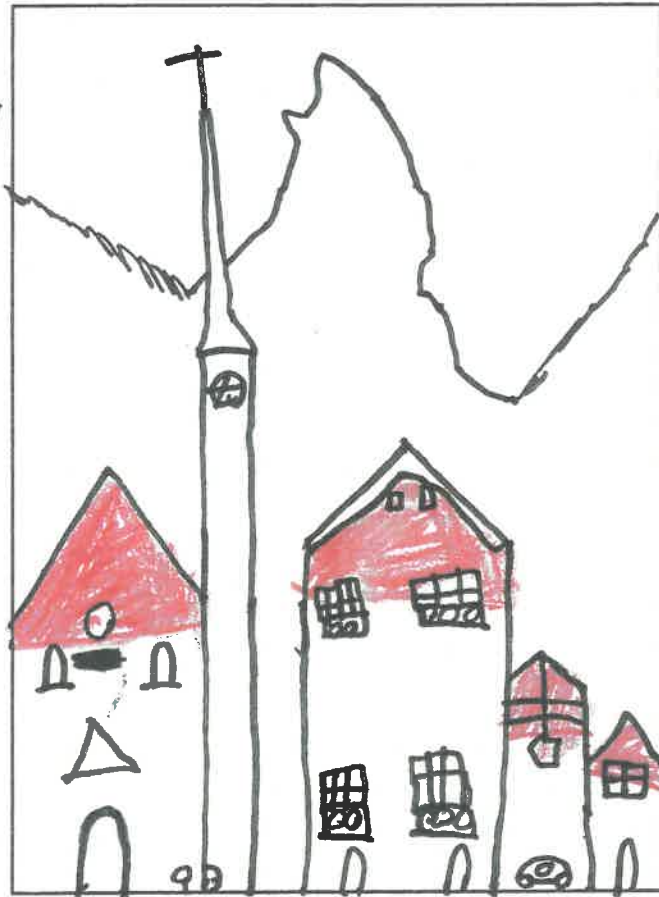

1 day to go in a train

23hr to walk

70hr to bike

did you know the village at the bottom of the village at the bottom of the village called Zermatt. did you know the Matterhorn is on the telephone. The Zermatt village was build in 1938. The first train reached Zermatt on 18th July 1891. there are 500 bodies on the Matterhorn. the Zermatt sacred when massive glaciers sculpted this highland into today's jagged peaks and deep valleys to create iconic glacial

The village at the bottom of the Matterhorn landscapes.

The Zermatt stretches out back to the 13th century. The Zermatt village today is 6092m. The Zermatt is officially the sunniest place in Switzerland.

Oliver